Watch out for scholarship scams! Students often use the Internet to seek out different scholarship opportunities... but you must be careful. If you are asked to pay a fee for an organization to help you with your scholarship search... Beware! Looking for scholarships shouldn't cost you a penny. Occasionally, you may find a scholarship that requires a processing fee, which is usually a minimal amount. In these cases, you can decide whether or not to apply. A good site to help you with your search is www.fastweb.com or www.salliemae.com. There is free money out there... all you need to do is apply. Good luck!
